WORLD FAMOUS SPEED KINGS CONTEST ON UNIONTOWN HILL

Charlie Johnson Vanquishes Ralph DePalma and His Mercedes in Packard

TWO LOCAL MEN ENTER RACES

Not an Accident Mars the Success of
The Day—Visitors from all Over
The Country Attend—Greatest Event of its Kind Ever Held.

Thursday the hill races at Uniontown were held and issued without even the slightest accident to mar the day. Charlie Johnson of Uniontown, won the free-for-all in the greatest speed contest ever held on the three-mile course from Hopwood to the Summit. He smashed all previous records and made an enviable record for himself.

In his Packard Greyhound, Johnson defeated the automobile speed king of the world, Ralph DePalma, the winner of the Indianapolis Speedway sweepstakes on Decoration Day. Yesterday's races at Uniontown was a great event in the history of Fayette county.

The attendance of Thursday was the greatest that ever witnessed the hill climb at Uniontown. A feature that went largely to Johnson's supremacy was his complete knowledge of the speedway.

Event No. 1 was for motorcycles exclusively. In this event Irving E. Janke took first place with his Harley-Davidson, 3:16 1-5; Rich L. Bacon, Harley-Davidson, second, 3:27 2-5; and Carl Goudy, Excelsior, third 3:22 2-5.

Event No. 2 for cars having a piston displacement of 230 cubic inches and under. A. M. Walden, Chalmers first, 3:50; M. A. Cracker, Saxon, second, 4:04; A. D. Spencer, Buick, third, 4:04 3-5.

Event No. 3 free-for-all. C. W. Johnson, Packard, first, 3:27 2-5; I. P. Fetterman, Simplex, second, 3:16 3-5; William Poffenberger, Marmon, third 3:47 4-5.

A. D. Spencer of Charleroi made an excellent showing with his Buick 6, coming in third place in the free-for-all. Guy Woodward, also of this place, was entered in the second event but because of mechanical troubles did not finish the race.

BROWNSVILLE WOMAN ARRESTED; CHARGED WITH SELLING LIQUOR

Tells Pitiful Story to Police Authorities—Was Deserted by Worthless Husband.

Delfina Deandre, a middle-aged woman of Brownsville was arrested Thursday at Wick Haven charged with selling liquor without a license. She was arrested by Constable Carey Gueseman on information made before Squire C. C. Garlettis. The woman told a very pitiful story before the justice of the peace. She stated she was married and her husband had left her without means of support. She had worked hard trying to make a living, but everywhere she applied for a position a younger woman was later preferred. Finally she claimed she was told what a fine living she could make if she would purchase small quantities of beer and whiskey and dispose of them at retail prices, whereupon she decided to try it. She had not been in business long, however, until she was caught. The woman will be given a hearing before Squire Garlettis this evening.

Charleroi Epworth League Attends in a Body Along With Many Others

PICNIC IS HELD AT ELDORA

Convention Convenes at Monongahela
Until Noon and Then Goes to Eldora—Many Interesting and Beneficial Talks Made.

The greatest Epworth League convention ever held in Washington county is being held in Monongahela by the Leagues of the county. 1 crowds and in enthusiasm and every conceivable way the present convention is absolutely the greatest in the history of the county.

Rev. Raymond L. Archer, of the missions sent to that unfortunate country by the United States. Mrs. Bessie Brooks of Beaver talked on "The Second Department Conference." C. E. Towner of Monongahela lectured on "Christ's Law for the Use of Money." "Christian Stewardship Conference" was ably discussed, by Rev. Smith of Washington. John W. Ward of Hays, Pa., gave a wonderful lecture of the pursuance of an aim.

Thursday morning the sunrise service was attended by nearly 200 young people from all over the county. The sunrise meeting was practically in the hands of the young people and Miss Jennie Bradford as leader.

Today several good topics were discussed. This afternoon the closing feature of the Washington District Epworth League Convention was a jollia picnic at the Eldora Park. Many large baskets of edibles were at hand and a fine time was enjoyed. The Charleroi Epworth League of the local Methodist church attended in a body and dined at the picnic in the same manner.

HEALTH IN THE SCHOOLS.

Hereafter, under an act of the 1-2 legislature signed by the governor, every school teacher in Pennsylvania is to employ an assistant health officer. It provides that those in charge of schools shall report to the health officer of city, borough or township any unusual rash, skin eruption, sore throat, symptoms of whooping cough, or any disease of the eye noted in any child attending school and shall immediately exclude such child from the school pending report by the health officer.

This law, if legally lived up to, should do more to combat the spread of children's diseases than anything that has yet been done, says the Harrisburg Dispatch. Experience has shown that such epidemics start soon after school convenes in the fall, indicating where the infection is communicated. Whether the change from open air during vacation to confinement in school rooms is not responsible for origination of these epidemics there can be no doubt that their spread is due to commingling in school.

Parents, careless or uninformed, think nothing of the sore throat that is the first warning of some of the most prevalent diseases of childhood. The teacher is responsibly certain to know of it, and now that he or she is authorized and required to exclude the child and to report to the health officer, a check can be put in the most common cause of contagious epidemics. Parents should cooperate in this movement. Mistakes will of course be made, but it is better to be sure than sorry.

FAR EFFECTS ON INVESTMENTS

Most financial economists have ascribed the increasing cost of capital during the past half-score years to readjustments rendered necessary by the burden of the Boer war, says the Gazette Times. The Japanese-Russian conflict and the growth of militarism all over Europe following those events. The movement of interest rates was automatic. The Boer war increased England's public debt and the enlarged armaments increased the requirements of all foreign governments. In addition to the new loans floated, involving more revenue to pay interest thereon, there was a considerable increase in tax rates. The buying power of income derived from investments was thereby reduced because a larger proportion of income was taken from individual investors in the shape of higher taxes. Investment yield may be affected in two ways. The borrower may be compelled to pay a higher fixed rate of interest or he may be compelled to sell his obligations at a discount so that the cost on the actual amount of the principal sum advanced is higher than the fixed rate. The effect of the increased cost of new capital has been to depreciate the market value of old investments, bringing the yield on the latter up to the parity of the yield on newly issued securities. This readjustment in the yield on investments has been in progress for years and the effect has been world-wide. Thus a prominent American railroad which once borrowed money on its bonds at 3 per cent interest this year had to pay 4 per cent on a consolidated bond issue.

The Boer war and the Russo-Japanese war were skirmishes by comparison with the present conflict and of the former and their aftermath increased the cost of capital in the past that will be the effect of the world-war upon the future? One effect is already noticeable in the developments of the week. England's first war loan bore 3 1-2 per cent interest and was issued at 95. The financial plan just announced calls for a loan bearing 4 1-2 per cent to be issued at par. It also provides for the conversion of 2 1-2 per cent bonds which were outstanding before the outbreak of the war, and which have no fixed date of maturity and of the 3 1-2 per cent loan issued since the war began, on such terms of liberality as surprised even London bankers. The amount of the new consolidated loan is virtually unlimited and may reach $5,000,000,000 in the event that conversion of old loans the amount of new cash realized will supply war needs only for a few months at the existing rate of expenditure and there is no assurance that additional loans on more favorable terms will not be necessary if the struggle is protracted.

Ordinarily investors would eagerly absorb a 4 1-2 per cent bond backed by the British government, but on the present occasion in order that there shall be no failure it is proposed that the loan be issued in denominations as low as $25 and that vouchers may be purchased in sums as low as $1.25. When enough vouchers are accumulated to make up $25 or multiples thereof, they may be exchanged for bonds. Meanwhile six months' money is quoted in New York as low as 3 per cent per annum and such loans are not backed by any government but are secured by collateral representing obligations of American corporations.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

The self-made millionaire who had endowed the school had been invited to make the opening speech at the commencement exercises. He had not often had a chance of speaking before the public and he was resolved to make the most of it.

He dragged his address-out most tiresomely, repeating the same thought over and over. Unable to stand it any longer a couple of boys in the rear of the room slipped out. A coachman who was waiting outside asked them if the millionaire had finished his speech.

"Gee, yes!" replied the boys. "but he won't stop."

Pensively Patrick gazed into the pigsty and fixed his eye and knitted his brow on the fat little object that snugly snorted to itself.

"Mm!" he muttered, as shifting into a different position he viewed the piglet from another angle.

Along came Betty O'Hoyle but not even her pretty face could lure Patrick from his contemplations.

"An' how's the pig, Pat?" she asked slightly piqued by his indifference.

"He's a livin' wonder!" came the emphatic answer.

"Shure, an' how's that, Patrick?" inquired Betty, drawing nearer the sty.

"Bejabbers," exclaimed the contemplative one, "he's just guzzled two pailfuls of milk, and then I put him in the pail and he didn't half fill it."

Queen Victoria's Bible.

A revival of interest in religion is one of the features of the war. Soldiers going to the front have been supplied with Bibles and have been given splendid advice by their generals. Churches have been filled by those who have remained at home, for in a time of great catastrophe like this the mind of mankind instinctively turns to a Power higher than itself. This serves to recall the fact that the late Queen Victoria was an earnest student of the Bible and deeply interested in personal religion. In the British museum the visitor will find a copy of the pocket Testament which Queen Victoria gave to Lord Gower, on the flyleaf of which she wrote a couple of her favorite texts. The verses are I Cor. 13:4 and 8.—Leslie's.

Suspicious.

George W. Perkins said at a dinner: "There are some people who insist on seeing an octopus in every trust. These people cross-question you as suspiciously as the young wife cross-questioned her husband after the banquet."

"A young husband attended his first banquet, and a few days afterward his wife said to him:

"Howard, is it true that you were the only sober man at that banquet?"

"No, of course not!" Howard indignantly answered.

"Who was, then?" said his wife.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Announcement is made of the candidacy for the Democratic Nomination for Sheriff of S. L. Woodward, of Charleroi, Pa. Mr. Woodward has been expected to make his announcement at almost any time and the news is therefore not unexpected to his legion of friends throughout the county. The office to which he seeks election is one of the most important in the county and also one that requires a man of stern character and unflinching adherence to duty.

Mr. Woodward served six years in the North Charleroi Borough council; the later part of which he presided over until locating and making his residence in Charleroi. "Steve" has been a most successful business man and is today at the head of one of the largest furniture establishments in the Monongahela valley. His personality and kindness have won him a place among the people in this end of the county that cannot be forgotten. He is at present serving a term as Burgess of Charleroi, to which he was elected by a large majority.

Coming from a staunch Democratic family he has always been aligned with that political faith and during many of the hard fought political campaigns devoted his time and influence in furthering the cause of Democratic principles.

His ability to give to the people of this county an administration that would reflect credit to himself as well as to those who stand as his supporters is unquestioned.

Public office should be filled by men who have proven their value to their fellow-men—men whose record for business integrity and success places them among the ones who are ever alert and striving for the betterment of the people as well as for their own personal benefit. In Mr. Woodward Washington county is assured such a man.

The primaries will be held on September 21. Every Democrat in the county is urged to go to the polls. It is necessary that at this time those who stand for the principles of the party, keep firm and show their appreciation of the candidates, by registering and voting at the primary election.

Soldiers' Winter Clothing.

The soldiers of Japan have learned the value of paper clothing for winter wear. The paper, which is made from mulberry bark, has little sizing in it, and is soft and warm. Between two sheets of the paper they place a thin layer of silk wadding, and then quilt the whole. It is something of a drawback that clothing so made is not washable, but in a winter campaign a soldier has other things to think of than the dirt on his uniform.—Youth's Companion.

Good Rule to Follow.

Judge Gary of the Steel corporation said to a Pittsburgh audience: "A young man should be thoroughly honest, frank and sincere. When he says anything he should tell the truth." Also, it will not hurt the young man to keep on doing these things after he gets older, when he may be surprised to find less competition.

Goodyear Fortified Tires Cost Users $5,000,000 Less

Our last price reduction—made February 1st—will save Goodyear users about five million dollars this year. And that was our third reduction in two years, totaling 45 per cent.

Yet Note This

Yet Goodyear Fortified Tires embody many extras. Five are costly features found in no other tire. The rest are found in few. If we omitted those extras, we could save on this year's probable output $1,635,000. We could add that to our profits, yet Goodyear tires would look as good as now.

This year's improvements alone will cost us $500,000 this year. All to give you extra wear. And we shall spend $100,000 on research this year to find more improvements still.

And That Spoiled It

Douglas Fairbanks went to a social affair the other night and an admiring woman cornered him.

"Oh, Mr. Fairbanks," she said, "your acting is wonderful."

"Thank you," he replied.
"It's marvelous how you bring out the different emotions."

"I'm glad you appreciate my work."

"Yes, indeed, you are a great actor."

"You are indeed complimentary."

"And do you know," the woman ration at home who acts exactly like you do."

Child Research Work

Miss Elizabeth Moore of St. Louis, who is a member of the children's bureau department of the government, has returned to Saginaw, Mich., to continue her investigations in regard to the women of the lumber camps and health of the children. Miss Julia Lathrop, head of the children's bureau, ordered Miss Moore to Indianapolis shortly after the holidays to assist in making preparations for a child welfare exhibition to be given in that city. Miss Moore was there ten days before returning to her regular work.

AMONG THE THEATRES

PALACE—CHARLEROI

During the week the local Palace theatre had many wonderful attractions booked. Monday "Wife for Wife", an Alliance feature, made quite a hit with movie enthusiasts.
The really big feature of the week was "What Happened to Jones". This was a comedy and a comic one, too.
Thursday the presentation of "Her Other Self" was well applauded by the audience and was considered a complete hit. Manager Barnhart announces that he has secured the wonderful motion picture play, "Unbroken Road" for Monday's special feature, with Mary Nash playing the leading role. "The Unbroken Road"
is a play of many thrilling instances and has a conclusion that fully satisfies the onlooker when the film is ended.

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

The program of the past week at the local Majestic was one of many elegant productions. One of the greatest productions on the present day American stage was screened at this playhouse Wednesday. The title was "Graustark" and it was a photoplay well worth the most hearty admiration of all theatre goers. Francis X. Bushman among the most popular actors in the country, played the leading role. "Graustark" was not a play possessed of so many meaningless instances as are such a great number of the current photoplays;
it had an appeal potent to effect not only the frivolous but even the serious.
A theatre could be spoken of no more highly than to remark that it screened "Graustark".

COYLE—CHARLEROI

During the past week the local Coyle theatre has retained its excellent reputation by showing the usual fine and expensive series of photoplays. Manager Coyle had booked for Tuesday "The Woman", a new photodramatic creation by Lesky-Belasco. This had one of the most exceptional casts ever organized for the picturization of a famous play.

The four leading roles were under the supervision of Louis Meredith, Mabel Van Buren and James Neill.
"The Clementine Case," dramatized from the famous novel of the same name by Alexander Dumas, was a notable feature showed Monday. On June 29, Daniel Frohman presents Mary Pickford as "Fanchon the Cricket." "The Eternal City," Wednesday, was a wonderful masterpiece of dramatic competency in production.

LYRIC—CHARLEROI

Saturday the local Lyric theatre
presented a wonderful series of pictures on the European war. A very beautiful and rare picture was the presentation of the "Warring Nations' Battleships." It was a delightful picture showing the Allies' fleets in the English Channel, the French battleships at Marseilles, the bombardment of Paula and Courtaux,

by the allied fleet, the German submarine U-29 cruising off Heligoland and the English fleet laboring in a heavy sea in the Channel. Pictures were also given of aerial warfare, showing Russian observation balloons operating in Poland, French aeroplanes brought to earth by German guns and the flight of a German Zeppelin.

To the Business Men of Charleroi

When a good salesman goes out after business, he first puts on a clean collar and gets his shoes shined. Then he looks like more business—and he's made a flying start toward getting it.

Likewise, a community can go after more business—and get it. The "clean collar and shiny shoes" of this town are the well-painted stores, the bright, cheery homes, the fresh, clean-looking buildings. The part paint plays in building up local pride cannot be put in figures—but its good effects are recorded on the local merchants' sales sheets. Buy good paint. We recommend

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong."

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

At every service special music will be rendered by the choir and special literary numbers are also being prepared. The annual Children's Day exercises will also be held Sunday.

All the members are being urged to make an effort to attend all the services of the day. In addition to the celebrating of the anniversary, this day is made a home-coming day by many who have had a membership in this congregation but have moved elsewhere.

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

Sufferers from Tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. Fresh air, regular habits and good food aid in restoring health, but more is often needed. Many have been restored to health by Eckman's Alternative. Read this:—

"Gentlemen—Through a combination of circumstances I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Tuberculosis (bacilli) were found. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator." (Abbreviated)
